LOCAL GLEANINGS

You will have to hurry if you get one of those premium wall charts which we are offering free to persons paying a year's subscription to The Herald. Within the last few days more of them have been taken than during the same length of time previously, and at present rate what we have on hand will soon be gone, when we will discontinue the offer. If you want the wall chart sent by mail, please add 10 cents to pay for mailing and postage, unless your payment on subscription amounts to three dollars or more.

We would like to suggest again that now is a good time to subscribe for The Herald or make a payment on subscription if you are already a subscriber. A fine three-leaf map (wall chart) given to every person paying $1.50 or more on subscription, but this offer is good only while the present supply lasts. The price of this premium if sold by agents would probably be from a dollar to a dollar and a half. We make no extra charge for it, unless sent by mail, in which case add ten cents for wrapping and postage. If your payment amounts to three dollars or more, we will mail the wall chart without charge, if so desired.

Thomas Beal has begun the erection of a modern home on Toluca avenue.

W. C. Israel of Benkleman, Nebr., was visiting in Alliance yesterday, being an old time friend of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rumer. Mr. Israel was until recently editor and publisher of the Benkleman News-Chronicle, and is candidate for state representative on the republican ticket.

Miss Josephine Hampton will have a most delightful summer visiting in the East. She left last Friday, going first to Lincoln, where she will spend a few days with University friends, after which she will go on to Chicago. From that city she will go to Toronto, Canada, where her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Callahan, resides. Miss Hampton will spend most of the summer in Toronto. Before returning she will probably visit friends in Ohio, stopping in that state on her return home.

A Lutheran Young People's society was organized last evening at the new Immanuel German Evangelical Lutheran church. A constitution was adopted and the following officers elected: President, John Rehder; vice pres., Otis Lange; secretary, Miss Elsa Koester; treasurer, F. J. Meyer. A meeting of the society will be held about every two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Peterson, formerly of Alliance but now residing at Deadwood, stopped over Monday to visit friends in this city, enroute to Winona and St. Paul, Minn., for a six weeks' vacation.

Rev. Utterback, pastor of the Christian church at Gering, will be in Alliance and preach at the court house hall, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, and at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The Alliance Times has changed hands again, Howard C. King, who formerly worked on the paper, taking charge this week. The Herald wishes the new editor well.

Between answering calls for his services as a veterinarian and getting ready for the next big horse sale of Lester & Son, Dr. Claude L. Lester is kept busy, night and day almost. He was called to Hemlingford again this week to treat some horses.

A new cement sidewalk is being constructed on the west side of Cheyenne avenue, between Second and Third streets.

Edgar W. Wilson is in Creston, Ia., this week, being called there Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother, Banks Wilson, who has many a acquaintance here on account of extended visits he has made at Alliance.

The excavating for the addition to the Emerson school building was begun this week.

The nine room residence of John Dougherty is now nearing completion.

Mrs. Robert Garrett was up from Mullen this week for medical attention. She is suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning.

Frank Garrett of Mullen was in Alliance last week on a visit.

Mrs. Goodlieb Seidler returned from Columbus last Sunday, where she has been in the hospital for some time past.

The steam grader is at work grading the street north of the High school building.

Allen H. Morris came in Monday from his homestead north of Mitchell, where he had been making improvements and doing farm work.

Mrs. Nels Peterson and two children came up from Ravenna yesterday to make her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bullock, and other relatives and friends a three weeks' visit.

Miss Alva Young has been attending the tabernacle meetings at Scotts bluff and spend a few days this week visiting friends at Minatare.

Miss Eliza E. Deal is visiting her nephew, Alva Lotapich, and family at Minatare.

Mrs. C. D. Hall and son Vivian returned Monday from McGrew, where they had been visiting Mrs. Hall's daughter, Mrs. Wood Milliken. Mr. and Mrs. Milliken live five miles from McGrew, which is one of the new Union Pacific towns in the North Platte valley.

Miss Jennie Hilton of Chicago, a sister of Mrs. E. T. Kibbie, arrived in Alliance last Saturday for a three weeks' visit.

Miss Emma Gassman of York arrived today for a week's visit in Alliance, during which time she will guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kibbie and family.

Improvements are being made at the S. A. Foster Lumber Co.'s yard in Alliance, including the repairing of buildings, painting and putting up signs. The new sign on top of the sheds is the largest in the city, except that of the Dietz Lumber Co.

The Watson rooming house, over Watson & Watson's grocery store, is being fixed up in fine shape this week by painting and calceining. Grant Hale is doing the work.

We wish our readers to notice the advertisement of The City Bakery, successor to the Pardee. The new proprietor has been making some improvements in the establishment for the convenience of himself and his customers. He is furnishing a quality of goods that will insure a good trade, which we are pleased to see that he is already receiving.

S. K. Warrick made a business trip to the eastern part of the state this week.

If you want a reliable fountain pen, better get a Parker's "Lucky Curve" while you can get it at one-third off regular price at Brennan's. (30-2-1350)

Extensive repairs have been made on the First M. E. church within the last ten days. On the outside the roof was repaired, and the window and door casings painted; but the greatest change is on the inside. The ceiling of the auditorium has been beautifully redecorated, and the woodwork has been painted or stained and varnished. The same improvements have also been made in the basement. A change has been made in the pulpit arrangement. The platform formerly occupied by the choir, places being retained for organ and piano. A lower platform has been erected for the pulpit, the altar rail being placed in front of it. The work of repairing the interior will be completed before Sunday, when regular services will be held.

Miss Lulu Shipley of Kansas City terminated a very pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. John O'Keefe, last night and left for her home. Miss Shipley arrived in this city June 23. Last Friday she and Mrs. O'Keefe went for a visit at the home of Mrs. O'Keefe's brother, A. L. Shipley, west of Bridgeport, returning to Alliance Monday. During her visit here Miss Shipley made many friends who will always be glad to extend a cordial welcome upon her return.

News of the drowning in the Blue river at Beatrice of Miss Weston, daughter of Ralph Weston, comes today. They formerly resided on the place west of St. Joseph Hospital, now owned by Mr. Davidson. We have not yet learned the particulars of the sad affair, except that she had been bathing in the river.

As will be seen by C. B. Johnston's announcement in The Herald, he has opened the Edgar W. Wilson barn for a general feed business and has taken out a drayman's license to do transferring and hauling. Carl is a rustler and hard worker and ought to make a success, as he no doubt will.

If you have any doubt about the fertility of the soil in this country with plenty of moisture, take a look at the weeds along the streets of Alliance and see how they grow since the recent rains.

HORSE AND MULE SALE

We are going to conduct another sale of Horses and Mules at the STOCK YARDS, ALLIANCE, NEBR., Friday and Saturday, July 26 and 27

We want every ranchman and dealer or anyone else having horses and mules to dispose of to list them for this sale. There will be plenty of buyers here from eastern and southern states who will pay the best prices for all kinds.

We have the assistance of several parties who will get all the good buyers here possible. Don't be afraid to bring in your horses and mules as we will protect you and see that you get a square deal.

List them as soon as possible so we can get a line on what to advertise.

Commissions: Single horses and pairs, $2 each; 3 or more, $1 each.

WOODROW WILSON'S OLD BELIEFS.

[New York Globe.]

Back in 1894, long before he became infected with personal political ambition, Woodrow Wilson wrote essays, published in the Atlantic Monthly, that his enemies do not apparently care to quote. For example, there is one on Walter Bagehot in which the following passage occurs:

Moreover, there is a deeper lack in Bagehot. He has no sympathy with the voiceless body of the people, with the "mass of unknown men." He conceives the work of government to be a work which is possible only to the instructed few. He would have the masses served, and served with devotion, but he would not like to see them attempt to serve themselves. He has not the stout fiber and the unquestioning faith in the right and capacity of inorganic majorities which make the democrat. He has none of the heroic boldness necessary for faith in wholesale political aptitude and capacity. He takes democracy in detail in his thought, and to take it in detail makes it look very awkward indeed.

Woodrow Wilson is accused of being a "Federalist." It is charged that his present sympathy with democratic ideas is a pretense. He is accused of the meanness of changing his convictions in the hope of getting office.

It is doubtful whether American political history, full as it is of reckless slanders, furnishes an instance of character assassination more contemptible than that of which Woodrow Wilson has been the victim.

GONE TO HER REWARD

Mrs. Frazier Passes Away at Age of Nearly Ninety Years

Last Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Wiker of this city, occurred the death of Mrs. Nancy Hayes Frazier. Mrs. Frazier was one of the first settlers in this part of the country, having come to this county with her family many years ago. She located several miles north of Alliance. Had she lived until December, Mrs. Frazier would have been ninety years old.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time past but not until a couple of weeks ago was she compelled to seek her bed. She remarked to those around her that this would be her last illness. She leaves to mourn her loss, Mrs. Albert Wiker, Miss Susie R. Frazier, John Frazier and Miss Hattie Frazier of this city; Mrs. Mollie Watson and Mrs. Hartman of Galesburg, Illinois; and Mrs. George Sutton of Lockney, Texas. A son, H. H. Frazier, died about two years ago.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Olin S. Baker of the M. E. church preaching the sermon. There were many floral gifts bespeaking the esteem in which deceased was held by her many friends. She was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery there to wait the final call on the judgment day. To the bereaved friends and relatives The Herald extends its heartfelt sympathy.

Card of Thanks

In the hour of our bereavement we wish the many friends, whose kindness cheered our dear departed mother during the last days of her earthly pilgrimage, to know how much we appreciate their deeds of love. The floral offerings by the Ladies' Aid and the Woman's Club were tokens of the sympathy for which we are deeply grateful.

Weekly Weather Report

Again The Herald has the pleasure of bringing its readers a favorable weather report for the past week. On last Thursday, July 4th, rains fell over this part of Nebraska, the heaviest being at Alliance, where it amounted to almost a flood. Some damage was done by water running into cellars and also by the wind which broke branches of trees and some windows. Hail fell in some localities, but the area covered was small. Since then there have been scattering rains, the weather has been warm, and crops are growing nicely. A good hay crop is assured, small grain will make a fair crop, and the prospects for corn and potatoes are splendid.

SCOTTSBLUFF APOLOGIZES

Last Friday's issue of the Scottsbluff Star contains a profuse apology under the above caption for having taken the Alliance fire boys' beer away from them on the Fourth. It seems that a supply of liquid refreshments was taken over to Scottsbluff from Alliance, it being supposed that nothing stronger than root beer and ginger ale could be purchased in that city. It is claimed that the wet goods were not taken from this city for commercial purposes but for private use, but that did not prevent the officers of the law from confiscating them—if confiscation it may be called. On behalf of the Alliance boys, The Herald accepts Scottsbluff's apology, with the understanding that it will not occur again.

NEBRASKA STATE FAIR

The State Fair, Sept. 2-6, grows bigger and better every year. In addition to all the exhibits, and attractions of the great fair of 1911, the management has secured the entire Cheyenne Frontier Days Show to move bag and baggage down to Lincoln. That includes a tribe of real Sioux Indians, Champion Lady Rough Riders, Real Cowboys, 70 of the greatest Outlaw Horses in the World, the only team of Buffalo broken to drive, etc. This will all be given in front of the grand stand afternoon and evening each day.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many kind people of Alliance who assisted and sympathized with us in our bereavement, in the untimely death of our brother.

MR. and MRS. D. A. GARRISON.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS

Notice is hereby given that trespassing is positively forbidden on sections 21, 22, 27 and 28, town 26, range 48. By order of the owner.
